WEE KIM WEE DISTINGUISHED JOURNALIST LECTURE 2010

The Temasek Foundation - NTU Asia Journalism Fellowship & The Wee Kim Wee School of Communication and Information, Nanyang Technological University are extending an invitation to our members to their lunch talk, Journalism in an Age of Tolerance, by Goenawan Mohamad, on Wednesday 14 April at the Traders Hotel, The Gallery, Cuscaden Road from 12.00 to 2pm.

Journalism in an Age of Intolerance

Intolerance is one of the most powerful political forces in Asia and the world. An increasingly integrated world confronts people with difference on a daily basis. Although encounters with difference are opportunities for learning, creativity and growth, they can also be met with intolerance – sometimes spontaneous, often actively provoked by political interests. What can journalism do to help build a culture of tolerance?

The Speaker

Goenawan Mohamad is one of Asia's most respected journalists. He founded Indonesia's Tempo magazine, a beacon of independent journalism in Suharto's New Order regime. He has been a recipient of the International Press Freedom Award from the Committee to Protect Journalists, and was named International Editor of the Year by World Press Review magazine. He is also a celebrated poet.

Seats are limited and will be allocated on a first come first served basis.
